ABOUT US

Elevator Operator is a high-vibe, indie rock band from Olympia, WA putting out positive frequency originals and uplifting audiences! Elevator Operator's music and performances are a ceremony of gratitude for this life and they have amassed thousands of loyal followers and headlined shows all over the PNW!

Elevator Operator was originally founded as Waking Bear in 2018 by songwriters Noah Bears R. and Ivy Jordanne. In 2024 Waking Bear rebirthed itself as Elevator Operator. They're the same band with all the same players, but now with a name that better fits the intention of their music: to inspire and uplift, to keep returning to how lucky we all are to be here and to be alive!

TESTIMONIALS

"Their compositions are unique, authentic and raw."

The Best of Pitchfork

"(They) are creating exceptional music which connects with listeners hearts and evokes intense feelings of love and joy."

New Music Plus

"The words you have of wisdom are so real, so wonderful, and so loving and this world needs much more people like you. More people to believe in something wonderful that life is just a step in the direction we're all going. You're wonderful honey. I wish the best for you and your wonderful group. I love your music!"
